A housekeeper who has conquered the pest of red ants requests that the following remedy be published as an aid to other housewives: Oil of sassafras, put where red ants are troublesome, will drive them away. Paint the shelves with the oil with a camel hair brush, rubbing well into any cracks there may be.

There is danger that the state will be flooded with benighted mill during the coming summer. The government decision, however, has thrown the final settlement of the question into the hands of consumers. Manufacturers will continue to use benzene acid only because of neglect or ignorance, and then the label will tell its own tale.

Decision by Judge Wheeler.
The Industrial and Manufacturing Co. of Mystic must pay the R. A. Sherman's Sons Co. of Westerly the sum of $5,175 before the last Monday in June. The New Haven Railroad, the company's factor in Mystic, will be foreclosed on. This is the substance of a decision handed down Monday by Judge R. W. Wheeler of the superior court in the case in which the Western company was the plaintiff and the Mystic concern the defendant. The suit was brought for builders' supplies furnished for the Industrial and Manufacturing company's mill at Mystic. The Mystic company denied the charges, claiming that the amount really owed was $2,568.65.

PLAN FOR SEVERAL BANDS.

Executive Committee of Celebration Acts on Several Matters—Military Organizations to be Invited—Appropriations and Committees.

The executive committee of the coming celebration held a meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the central fire station, at which there were fourteen in attendance. There was much accomplished at the session of an hour and a half and another meeting will be held in a week or ten days.
Two additional committees were named, those on hospitality and procession, the latter containing a member from every organization in town. Appropriations for music, fireworks and the loan exhibit which they have to do with.
The idea is to have a number of bands for the parade and concerts and negotiations are under way for the Fifth Regiment band of Boston and the Coast Artillery companies of this city. New London and Danielson will be invited there to participate in the parade and there may be invitations to other military organizations, which will be determined in a few days. These will be the only organizations which the committee will invite outside of the Putnam Phalanx, another military organization, but local organizations of any kind can invite as many out of town organizations as they wish and they will be welcomed to Norwich and can participate in the parade. It is understood that the local postoffice force will have the New London force turning out with them in the parade.
There was a meeting of the literary committee on Tuesday morning, but nothing was done.

GARDINER GREENE FOR SUPERIOR COURT BENCH.
Report from Hartford States that This is Settled—Appointments for Gov. Weeks to Make.

Governor Weeks will have the appointment of two judges of the superior court. Chief Justice Simon E. Baldwin will retire by age limitation (70 years) February 5, 1910, and will be succeeded by Justice Frederick R. Hall. Judge Elias A. Robinson of Middletown, the senior judge of the superior court, has been nominated to be an associate justice of the supreme court on the retirement of Chief Justice Baldwin. He will serve only a short time, as he will turn 70 on September 7 of next year, when his place will be taken by George W. Wheeler of Bridgeport. Thus two vacancies will exist in the superior court bench, to be filled by Governor Weeks.

There was a well defined rumor at the capitol Tuesday afternoon, says the Hartford Times, that the appointments of two new judges for the superior court bench had been settled. That Attorney General Marcus H. Hoag would be named to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of Justice Robinson to the supreme bench, and Gardiner Greene of Norwich for the vacancy caused by the promotion of Justice George W. Wheeler, who also goes on the supreme bench, is the way report has it.

Mr. Holcomb was 64 years old last November. Mr. Greene is in his 50th year.
Following is a list of the appointments to be made by Gov. Weeks:
State board of agriculture, one member to fill the vacancy caused by the death of C. L. Tuttle.
Two judges of the superior court.
State board of examining of embalmers (two), three years.
Inspectors of steam boilers (two), three years.
State board of mediation and arbitration (three), two years.
Appraisers of state prison property (two).
Commissioners of fish and game (three), two years.
Board of examination and registration of nurses (three), three years.
Board of veterinary registration and examination (two), five years.
State board of accountancy (two), three years.
Harbor commissioners for Norwich, Greenwich, New London, and deputy for New London.
Seven commissioners of Port Griswold tract.
State board of voting machine commissioners (three), three years.
Agent of the Connecticut school for boys, two years.
State board of charities (three), four years.
State chemists (seven), two years.
Board of control of Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station (one), three years.
Duty commissioner, two years.

There is a bill before the general assembly to increase the salary of the position from $1,500 to $2,500. The deputy from $1,500 to $2,000. The commissioner has the appointment of the deputy.
A successor to Frank T. Brown of Norwich as a member of the state police commission.

ACTIVE AT BOAT CLUB.
Fleet Made Ready for the Season and Boats Are Being Put in Condition.

Rufus Burnham's launch Quaver, which has the long and fine travel record for the club, is the latest of the Chelsea Boat club fleet to be put into the water this season. It was taken out of winter quarters last week.
Janitor Geary has called up the boat which will be used at Chelsea lodge this year. It has also been put into the water and is being put down there as soon as the season gets under way.

Past President N. A. Gibbs stepped the mast in his sleep May, Tuesday at the coal hoister in the rear of Davenport's.
A new fixture for the boat house prior has recently been added by the gift from an honorary member of a large picture of the giant ocean liner Lusitania. This monster steamer is 790 feet long.

LADIES' NIGHT.
Clos of Social Season at Colonial Club—Six Tables of Whist.

At the Colonial club Tuesday evening the social season was brought to close with a most enjoyable ladies' night. Six tables of whist were played. The first prize, a half dozen oyster tickets, went to Mrs. C. K. Hurlbut, 48 points. Mrs. William S. Allen and Mrs. H. L. Leroy were for second place with 44 points, and one each Mrs. Allen won a silver gavel. The first gentlemen's prize was awarded to Charles A. Whitaker, 38 points, a half dozen silver fruit knives, and the second to William J. Coomly, 33 points, a drinking cup. The consolation went to Mrs. R. B. Walsburn and Frank Davis. Refreshments were served.

Railroad Crossings.
The railroad commissioners gave hearings at their office in Hartford Tuesday morning on the petition of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company for the abolition of three grade crossings. Benjamin S. Cook appeared for the company. The first hearing was for the elimination of the crossing in Coventry, and First Section John H. Reynolds appeared for the town. The hearing on the Coventry matter was adjourned to May 11. No one appeared in the Lebanon matter. All three crossings are to be abolished by overhead bridges.

850 Dogs Registered.
This fact Town Clerk C. S. Holbrook has registered about 850 dogs. He issued licenses for about 140 on Monday and about the same number on Tuesday. Many owners take advantage of the fact that his office is

Incidents in Society

Miss Annie Ruggles of Broad street returned on Monday from a visit in Boston.

Alfred McClure, Jr., of New York has been the recent guest of friends in town.

Rev. James W. Cooper, D. D., of New York was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Leavens during his stay in town.

Miss Dana of New Haven, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. George D. Colt of Broadway, returned home this week.

The Monday afternoon whist club held its last meeting this season on Tuesday afternoon, being entertained by Mrs. Joseph W. Gilbert of Williams street.

WEDDING.
Carroll—Mahony.

At 7.30 o'clock Tuesday morning in St. John's church in Worcester John J. Carroll of this city, formerly of Worcester, and Miss Katherine C. Mahony of No. 31 Green street, Worcester, were united in marriage. A reception was held at the bride's home and after a short trip they will reside in the city where Mr. Carroll is engaged in the shoe business.

Chapman—Armstrong.
The marriage of Miss Alice May Armstrong and Charles Frederick Chapman was quietly solemnized Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Armstrong, of No. 17 Clairmont avenue, with only the immediate families in attendance. The ceremony was impressively performed at 6 o'clock by Rev. M. S. Kaufman, D. D., before a bank of palms and hydrangeas artistically arranged by Gleditsch.

The bride couple was unattended. The bride wore a princess gown of mink crepe and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. A wedding supper followed the ceremony. Both young people are graduates of the Norwich Free Academy, the groom in the class of 1900 and the bride in the class of 1901, and from their host of friends a large number of beautiful and valuable presents were received. The groom is the son of Mr. Charles Billings Chapman and is employed in New York as an electrical telephone engineer.

FIFTH COMPANY MEETING.
George Turner Made First Sergeant of Command—Four Applications for Membership.

On Tuesday evening there was a regular drill of the Fifth company, Coast Artillery corps, and four applications for membership were received. When the company returned from Hartford orders were read for the election of a first sergeant and Captain Tarbox appointed George A. Turner as first sergeant. The appointment is pleasing to the members, as he is a popular member and an indefatigable worker of the company.

Regarding the tour of duty of the Coast Artillery corps at the forts last summer, Capt. Albert G. Jenkins, the adjutant of the Coast Artillery corps, New London, reports as follows: "Officers anxious to learn by being shown how to prepare reports and returns, but many unable or unwilling to prepare these reports themselves by studying and following printed notes on forms themselves. Large per cent. of officers fail to appreciate the importance of promptness in sending in reports or being on time for formations. Payrolls, field returns, etc. are very slow in coming in even after being repeatedly sent for. Enlisted men not up to standard physically and many showed complete ignorance of ordinary military customs; showed desire to learn and improved daily at guard mountings, parades and at drills."

Capt. L. C. Brown recommends: "Technical examination should be required of candidates for appointment of officers of the Coast artillery reserves. More sub-cavalry ammunition drill too long; one and one half hours a m. and one hour p. m. recommended. Recommended that exercises close with 45 hours of simulated attack. Celebration firing should be conducted at some other time."

New London.—Frank L. George formerly a member of the firm of Duffy & George, architects, at 81 State street, was seized by a paralytic shock in Brooklyn, Mass., last Friday. At his home on Ocean avenue his condition was said to be a little improved on Monday night.

Mrs. Bussey was a woman held in high esteem by a wide circle of friends. She was an attendant at the Universalist church.

SURPRISE PARTY.
Baraca Class Has Merry Time at Home of Mr. and Mrs. Clough.

Monday evening the young men of the Baraca class of Trinity street church surprised one of their number, Chester Irving Clough, who was recently married to Miss Alice Abbe. A number of young women accompanied the members, and, according to agreement, the party met at Franklin square, from whence all proceeded in body to the home of the newly married couple, 221 Laurel Hill avenue. The evening was passed in one round of merriment. The attention of the party having been secured, Rev. Dr. Kaufman made a brief but most vivacious address upon the Blessings of matrimony from the altar. He followed by a happy presentation speech by Frank E. R. Lee, the first one who was enrolled as a member of this young men's class over three years ago. At the close Mr. Lee handed Mr. and Mrs. Clough a handsome picture, a gift of congratulation from the class. For the evening George W. Wright acted as master of ceremonies. The entertainment committee comprised G. E. Robinson, Wallace Potter, Frank Pearson, Walter C. Haack, meriment committee, Misses Myrtle Himes, Carolyn B. Woodward, Della B. Whitehead, Mary L. Haack, Jennie E. Botham, refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

The evening was most enjoyable in every way and none was happier than the devoted teacher.

Military Team Wants Games.
Baseball games are wanted with amateur teams in central or southern Connecticut by the Port Michie team. Wallace Potter, Frank Pearson, Port Michie, N. Y.

MEN'S LEAGUE.

Central Baptist Organization Had Pleasing Entertainment.
The Men's league of the Central Baptist church enjoyed a social evening Tuesday in Bushnell chapel, with a good attendance. The two special features were a delightful musical programme given by the ideal orchestra of thirteen pieces and recitations by Prof. Frank T. Maples, which were highly applauded. Both received a rising vote of thanks for their services.
President Allyn L. Brown presided and opened the meeting at 7.45 o'clock by welcoming the men present and introducing the orchestra for an opening selection. The numbers capitalizing the theme of the evening were: A Novel Cure for Rheumatism (Burdette), Me and Pop and Mother, a pathetic pastoral, a selection from Rip Van Winkle and The Story of Simon May and Martha Brown.
Cake and ice cream were served at the close under the direction of the entertainment committee, which included Charles C. Treat, C. Eugene Saunders and Charles F. Walters.
